

Tracey Rogers serves as Vice President and General Manager of WKRN-TV, the ABC affiliate in Nashville, Tennessee. Tracey has held the position of Vice President and General Manager at WMC-TV, the NBC affiliate in Memphis, Tennessee and KAIT-TV, the ABC affiliate in Jonesboro, Arkansas.

Tracey has served as News Director at WMC-TV, the NBC affiliate in Memphis, Tennessee; WAFF-TV, the NBC affiliate in Huntsville, Alabama and WPSD-TV, the NBC affiliate in Paducah, Kentucky.

Tracey started her career in Nashville, Tennessee where she was the Assistant News Director at WKRN-TV and worked at WTVF-TV, the CBS affiliate and WSMV-TV, the NBC affiliate.

Tracey has a degree in Broadcast Journalism from the School of Mass Communications at Middle Tennessee State University.

Tracey has been awarded three Emmy awards, four Associated Press awards and two Murrow awards.

She currently serves on the boards for the Better Business Bureau of Middle Tennessee, NATAS and Tennessee Association of Broadcasters.

Tracey is the current past-chairman of the Tennessee Association of Broadcasters board.

Tracey lives with her husband, Phillip; son, Blake and grandchildren, Ariana and Lucas in Eagleville, Tennessee.